About Me...

Thanks for stopping by and welcome to Vemma, Nutrition for a Lifetime. I have been with the parent company, New Vision, for about 13 years and Vemma from the beginning. I work full time as a Vice President for a healthcare company and build my Vemma business part time. If you are looking for something part time, full time, or just some of the time, Vemma is an incredible company. You have the options of working within the United States, Canada, or many more countries around the world. We have a proven system, that is easy to duplicate and support from the top leaders in the company. Vemma is a great journey, a lot of fun, surrounded by positive, creative, successful people. Entrust, Enrich, Excite, Exceed Own Your Life, Live it With Passion!!

Why I Do This

I was having problems with pain and arthritis in my knees. I started on the product and have taken it consistently, gotten off of my prescription meds and rarely have any pain. Give it a try for 90 days and see what happens for you.

I was introduced to Vemma by

I was introduced to New Vision and Vemma by my ex-husband Clay Jackson. Clay is the #3 income earner with Vemma and the top International Income Earner. We have a great team ready to work with you.

I think what sets the Vemma opportunity apart from others is

B.K. the owner of Vemma is an incredible leader, has integrity, creative, thinks outside of the box and listens to the field. He was a distributor in the past, so understands what it is all about in all areas of the business.

What do you want to achieve with Vemma?

My personal strength has always been working with others to assist them to reach their goals. It is the journey, along with the positive end results that makes the difference. Contact me to meet personally, develop a business plan, for you to move forward to start working towards your dreams.
